DECLINE IN WHEAT.
VIENNA, August 8.—The price of wheat in the Vienna market fell to a lower point on Saturday than has been known in 50 years, metrical center selling at 7 florins.

Germany.

THE GREAT TRADEMAKER.

BERLIN, August 8.—Alfred Krupp bequeathed $500,000 for the benefit of his employees. His son Frederick has added $125,000 to the amount. For the people of Essex, the town council of Essex has voted $150,000 for a statue of Krupp.

England.

THE WHEAT CROPS.

LONDON, August 8.—The wheat crop of France is good. It is estimated that the yield will amount to 110,000,000 hectolitres, against 105,000,000 in 1886.

RUSSIA REPORTS.

A satisfactory crop and it is especially good in Bessarabia and in Podolia. Doubtful in Volhynia, Minsk and Moevelie, owing to excessive rain. Fair in the provinces bordering on the sea of Azov and the river Don and exceptionally fine in Charkoff and Poltava.

China.

THE BANK OF CHINA.

SHANGHAI, August 8.—M. Milkenitz with two special envoys started for Washington today, having secured imperial decree sanctioning the formation of the bank syndicate. The project now only awaits ratification in America. The immediate capital of the proposed bank will be $5,000,000. The management will have the power to increase the sum. A dozen of the principal American banks will advance money. Li Hong Chang will be chairman with a joint American and Chinese management. The first move to be undertaken will be a railway between Peking and Tientsin and Canton.

France.

THE EX-QUEEN OF OPERETTA ROBBED.
PARIS, August 8.—Madame Ellul, the former queen of the Operetta, is the victim of a mysterious highway robbery. While traveling in a coach with two attendants, a valise containing valuables said to be worth $160,000 was stolen. Mme. Ellul had left the coach temporarily to relieve the horse while going up a hill and during her absence the valise disappeared. The male attendant Ande has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the theft.

BREAK UP HIS STUD.

COURT DE GUIGNAN has decided to break up his magnificent stud farm at Bala Round. He will keep only a few steeple chasers.

STILL AFTER DUEL.

PARIS, August 8.—Gen. Boulanger has written a letter to his seconds in reference to his proposed duel with M. Terry in which he says: "Public opinion will judge between one who a long distance off insults a general who will only grant discolory reparation, and myself who proposed to risk my life to avenge my honor as a soldier."

Death of Warsley, the Union Spy.
JAMESTOWN, N. Y., August 5.—Fardaw Warsley, the "Union Spy of the Shenandoah," died at his home at Foster Brook Wednesday, aged 67 years.

Beginning life as a fancy goods merchant in Massachusetts, at the opening of the war of the rebellion he raised a company of the 14th Massachusetts Heavy Artillery. He was soon afterwards employed by Maj.-Gen. B. F. in the British provinces to look into the system of blockade running then in vogue. He was successful in this mission, for Maj.-Gen. C. C. Angur in his report of August 25, 1865, says that it was through the instrumentality of Mr. Warsley that the extensive system of blockade running from Baltimore to Washington was broken up. After returning from this trip Warsley went out as a spy upon Mosby, under orders from Gen. Bugur, although not until he had returned to Boston and married Helen Isabelle Francis, who survives him.

Accompanied by his young wife Warsley set out ostensibly upon a wedding trip through Virginia. His real object was soon suspected by Mosby, and a spy was placed upon his track. The spy was a handsome young lady, who was to be conducted to Washington by Warsley. The Union spy was too smart to be caught, and instead of using his pass through the Union lines he conducted the lady through swamps and by-roads until she became disgusted with the trip, and she returned to Mosby convinced of the loyalty of Warsley. Mosby was not convinced, and at one time placed a pistol to Warsley's head, threatening to blow his brains out. The young lady intervened, and Warsley's life was saved. Afterwards

Mosby became his firm friend, fighting a duel with a nephew of Gen. Lee because Lieut. Lee had set a guard upon Warsley and had condemned him as a spy. On two occasions Warsley furnished information by which the federal force were enabled to surround the house in which Mosby was quartered, but the dashing rebel cut his way out and escaped. On several occasions Warsley got information of his intended raids upon Washington in time to allow the authorities to mass their forces and save the capital. At the time of the assassination of President Lincoln Warsley was given command of a squad of detectives. When Booth was killed Warsley returned to private life, and for years ran a park restaurant in the Bradford oil fields.

The court house was well filled last night, to hear Mr. J. D. Shaw's reply to the sermon of Prof. Black on the Divinity of Christ, which has attracted so much attention. It was a very attentive audience also, for Mr. Shaw is a brilliant speaker, and equally earnest and engaging on any subject.

The prohibition executive committee held a meeting yesterday and will hold another today. That today will probably be devoted to trying to see where the prohibition party is since the storm struck it, just as the captain of a ship, after a hurricane, bushes himself to find the latitude and longitude which was lost in the blow.

In coming down Austin street yesterday evening and while crossing Sixth and passing a wagon load of lumber, Mr. Frank Hinchman driving in a buggy attempted to sheer away from the wagon, when the animal not being bridle-wise, threw himself and fell directly under the hind wheels of the wagon. Fortunately the driver of the wagon stopped his team in time or there would have been a fine horse killed.

Prof. Black preached to a large audience last night. His subject was "The First Step of Faith." His text was the 7th verse of the XI chapter of Hebrews. He said that faith and belief, as used in the New Testament are one—that both are translated from the same word in the original Greek—that to believe with the heart means to believe with the affection, love. He who believes in Christ has confidence in Him, trusts Him, receives Him into his heart. After showing that faith in Christ and not in creed is essential to salvation he quoted many passages of Scripture to prove that faith is the gift of God in the sense in which bread is—that it comes by hearing the word of God. The example of the Bereans proves that it is the result of honest investigation. It is produced by preaching as is proved by the language of Paul in which he asks: How shall they believe on him of whom they have not heard and how shall they hear without a preacher? Faith apart from obedience does not save.

Remarkable Surgery.

The science of surgery has made such wonderful progress in modern times, that the most intricate and delicate operations are now undertaken and carried to a successful issue. There are now several well authenticated cases of what is known as pneumothorax, that is to say, the removal of diseased portions of the lungs in cases of consumption. While, however, this delicate operation has sometimes been successfully performed, the risk attending it are so great, and the chances of recovery so slight, that it is seldom resorted to. The safest plan in consumptive cases is to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This will always cure the disease in its earlier stages, thoroughly arresting the ravages of the terrible malady, by removing its cause and healing the lungs.

Held to Answer.

A black man by the name of Dick Day who has been in jail some time charged with an outrage on the person of one Francis Hudson, a bright mulatto girl of eleven years, had an examining trial before Justice Mackey yesterday. It was shown by the testimony that the plaintiff Francis Hudson and another little girl were sleeping in a cabin, on a pallet on the floor with the door unlocked. During the night, the one, Francis Hudson awoke to find the prisoner in the act of committing the alleged offense. She screamed in affright waking up her companion and Day sprang up and dashed out of the window. The girls got out of the window saw the defendant down in the bushes under so as to be able to swear to his identity. The evidence showing only attempt, a verdict was rendered of assault with intent to commit a rape, and the prisoner was held in $500 bail.

As to Cable Rates.

NEW YORK, August 8.—A leading official of the Western Union Telegraph company said today that three weeks ago representatives from the east, of cable companies met and endeavored to agree upon a plan to restore rates. The rate about agreed upon is 35 to 40 cents a word and Wednesday may see established the strongest cable pool ever formed. The existing hitch is said to be the large share demanded by the Commercial company but it is believed that Mr. Mackay is about to yield a point or two. A committee waited upon him at the Nevada bank, No. 63 Wall street today. George J. Gould admitted today that there had been talk of a consolidation with a rate that would be fair to all but nothing was yet decided upon.

Errors of Youth.
SUFFERERS FROM
Nervous Debility, Youthful Indiscretions, Lost Manhood,
BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN!

Many men, from the effects of youthful indiscretion, have brought about a state of weakness that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever being suspected, they are devoted for everything but the right one. Now, understanding the many valuable remedies that medical science has produced for the relief of this class of patients, none of the ordinary modes of treatment effect a cure. During our extensive college and hospital practice we have experimented with and discovered new and concentrated remedies. The accompanying prescription is offered as a certain and speedy cure, as hundreds of perfect health by its use after all other remedies failed. Perfectly pure ingredients must be used in the preparation of this prescription.

Preparation:
Erythroxylon cocca, 1 drachm
Jenbebel, 1 drachm
Helonias Borea, 1 drachm
Cinnamon, 1 drachm
Ext. ignellum anam. (alcoholic), 2 grains.
Ext. belladonna, 2 scruples.
Glycerin, q. s.
Mix.
Make up pills, take 1 pill at 8 p.m., and another on going to bed. In some cases it will be necessary for the patient to take two pills at bedtime, making the number three a day. This remedy is adapted to every condition of nervous debility and weakness in either sex, and especially in those cases resulting from imprudence. The recuperative power of the remedy is truly astonishing, and its use continued for a short time changes the languid, debilitated, nervous condition to one of renewed life and vigor.

As we are constantly in receipt of letters of inquiry relative to this remedy, we would say to those who would prefer to obtain it of us, by returning $1, a securely sealed package containing 50 pills, carefully compounded, will be sent by return mail from our private laboratory, or we will furnish a package, which will cure most cases, for $1.

What the Mt. Lebanon Shakers
Incident in the History of Quiet Community.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers are a quiet community, secluded from the world and worry of the outside. They are widely known, ever, for their strict honesty, probity in business.

The Shakers believe in a remedy for disease. A few have been discovered. Others came to the result of patient experiment and research.

Nervous Dyspepsia is a comparatively new disease, out of the conditions of life. It is a joint attack on the digestive organs and nervous system; these formerly treated as ailments, and it was less clear-sighted Shakers that the basis of this and often fatal complication in the disorder depraved functions of and nutrition; they thus: "If we can stimulate the excretory to drive out of the body sonous waste matter, main after the life-giving elements of the food have been absorbed, we shall have ed nervous dyspepsia, vomit, exhaustion, and right. Knowing the power of Shaker's Expectorant's Syrup in lessening though similar disease resolved to test it fully to leave no ground for they prescribed the hundreds of cases which been pronounced incurable with perfect success in instance where their diet as to living and diet was followed. Nervous dyspepsia and exhaustion peculiarly American disease a greater or less extent people of this country from it, both sexes and in no country in the there so many insane filled to overflowing, ing from this alarming.

Its leading symptoms: Frequent or continuous ache, a dull pain at the the brain; bad breath, ous eructations, the sour and pungent fluid throat, a sense of oppression and faintness at the stomach, flatulency, ness and loss of sleep with food even when the need of it, sticky matter on the teeth mouth, especially on the morning, furred tongue, dull eyes, cold and feet, constipation, rough skin, inability mind on any labor or continuous attention, pressive and sad looks and fears.
